MOOD: 😊 hungry

MUSIC: Richard Thompson - One Door Opens

If you spray the dough hook with cooking spray before kneading, the shoggoth is less likely to climb up the hook and attempt to escape!

Ooh, thanks; I always have a problem with that, especially rye.

That is... Absurdly obvious! Thank you, citizen, for your assistance.

Did you know that pretzels have toes?

Salty Toes?

Salty Toes Sourbread?

Yum.

The toes are the best part.

I think Salty Toes Sourbread is an old Folk-Impro band from San Francisco...

I'm, I'm not certain that I am permitted that information, citizen...

(do tell!)

It seems so obvious, now that you say it. I have had partial shoggoth escapees in the kitchen before. Scary.

I'll remember that if I ever get a stand mixer! Can't have shoggoths roaming the kitchen, after all.

(And I get to use my bread icon! Yay!)
